Derek Vs Derek

(2026-88mins-some bad language)

Shown in collaboration with Castlemorton
Environmental Group

Two neighbouring Devon farmers-both named Derek-find themselves on opposite sides of a battle for the future of the countryside. While one champions intensive farming, the other is rewilding his land, transforming it into a haven for nature.

As tempers flare, wildlife escapes, and the landscape changes around them, their neighbourly dispute becomes a funny, revealing, and timely exploration of who gets to shape the land--and what the future of farming should look like.

Tickets £5 on the door

The Crime is Mine

(15-2023-102mins-subtitles)

François Ozon's The Crime Is Mine delivers a sharp, stylish burst of 1930s Parisian comedy as two ambitious young women turn a murder accusation into a fast track to fame. With crisp humour, glamorous twists, and a scene stealing diva, it's a witty, elegant film powered by Ozon's signature finesse.

Supper special including a light meal
£12. Advance booking essential.

Thursday 19th November at 7:30pm

Rental Family

(12A-2025-109mins)

Rental Family follows an American actor in Tokyo who joins a rent-a-family agency, discovering unexpected comfort in playing a character- for-hire. As he moves through clients' lives, real connection grows from the gentle chaos. Brendan Fraser shines with an excellent performance, and Hikari's direction creates an uplifting, heartfelt journey through modern Japan.
